PREFACE.

THE COMMITTEE OF LLOYD'S REGISTER OF BRITISH AND FOREIGN SHIPPING have the pleasure to place in the hands of the Subscribers the UNIVERSAL REGISTER, which, after many months' labour, they have now brought to completion.

In the possession of so large a list of Subscribers, before even the first issue of the book, the Committee are glad to find evidence not only of the widespread want which will be met by the present work, but also of the confidence which, during its more than fifty years' existence, LLOYD'S REGISTER has enjoyed among the shipping community throughout the world.

The publication of the book has been unavoidably delayed for a short time by the extent of the information which—in response to the Committee's request—has continued to the very last to be sent to the Society; and the Committee take this opportunity of expressing their sense of the value of the ready and courteous assistance they have so generally received from shipowners and others in every part of the world. Above all, the Committee feel that not only their thanks, but also the thanks of the whole shipping community, are due to the Marine Departments of the British and of many Foreign Governments for placing at the disposal of the Society, for the use of the public, reliable information drawn from the official records of the merchant shipping of their respective countries, and now published, it is believed, for the first time.

The Committee gratefully recognise that by this very liberal action, and by the promises which they have received of continued assistance, the value of the book as a standard work of reference is greatly enhanced.

The official information with which they will thus be furnished, in addition to that which will be at their command, both from private sources and through the widely extended organisation of LLOYD'S REGISTER itself, renders the Committee confident that the UNIVERSAL REGISTER will justify its title, and take its place as the International Register of Shipping for commercial and for statistical purposes.

The Committee trust that they have succeeded, as far as space would permit, in including in the Universal Register the information most likely to be useful to the Subscribers. Without recapitulating the list of contents, attention may be invited to the following sections of the book, which are of a somewhat special character.

I. List of War Ships of the World.—This list has been arranged in such a manner as to render easy a comparison of the naval power of different nations. It has been compiled from the best available sources of information, and the Committee believe it will be found to be the most complete list that has yet been published. For the assistance which has kindly been rendered them from many quarters in this part of the work, the Committee beg to offer their best thanks.

II. The Statistical Tables which have been compiled for the present work will, it is thought, prove not only valuable to all who are connected with shipping, but also of considerable interest to the general public. They contain much information which has not, so far as the Committee know, been hitherto printed; and it will be seen that their practical usefulness has been much increased by the elaborate system of analysis which has been adopted. It may be added, that the Committee have determined to develop still further this branch of the work in future editions.

Although no effort has been spared to render the Universal Register at its first issue both accurate and complete, the Committee are conscious that the original compilation of so vast a mass of information could scarcely be unattended by errors and omissions. They will therefore most highly appreciate any aid with which, in their endeavour to meet the business requirements of the present day, they may be favoured, either by the rectification of errors or by the supply of further information.

It only remains to be stated that the Universal Register will in no way interfere with the publication of Lloyd's Register Book and the Yacht Register, both of which will continue to be issued annually as heretofore.

PRÉFACE.

Le Comité du Lloyd's Register of British and Foreign Shipping est heureux, après plusieurs mois d'un travail incessant, de pouvoir enfin fournir à ses abonnés l'Universal Register, qui vient d'être terminé.

Possédant un nombre si considérable de souscripteurs avant la publication de cet ouvrage, le Comité a trouvé dans ce fait, non seulement l'évidence que son travail répondait à un besoin réel, mais encore, il y a vu l'affirmation de la confiance que toutes les fractions du commerce maritime du monde entier ont accordé au Lloyd's Register depuis plus d'un demi-siècle.

La publication de cet ouvrage a dû être retardée pendant un certain temps, à cause de la multiplicité des renseignements qui, à la demande du Comité, ont été fournis à la Société et qui n'ont cessé d'arriver jusqu'au dernier moment. Le Comité du Lloyd's Register profite de cette occasion pour exprimer ses sentiments de gratitude aux armateurs et aux commerçants de toutes les parties du monde, pour leur courtoisie et la promptitude avec laquelle, en répondant à son appel, ils ont bien voulu fournir des renseignements aussi dignes d'intérêt. Le Comité remercie aussi en son nom, et en celui de toute la fraction commerciale maritime, les Bureaux de la Marine Marchande du gouvernement de la Grande-Bretagne et des gouvernements étrangers qui ont bien voulu mettre à sa disposition, pour les besoins publics, les renseignements maritimes les plus intéressants, puisés aux sources officielles de leurs diverses contrées, et sans aucun doute, c'est la première fois qu'une telle publication a lieu.

Le Comité est profondément reconnaissant de la manière vraiment libérale avec laquelle ses demandes ont été accueillies, et les promesses qui lui ont été faites de lui continuer un bienveillant concours ne peuvent que donner une valeur bien plus grande encore à un tel ouvrage au point de vue des renseignements, et à en faire un livre unique.

Les informations officielles qui seront fournies, complémentairement à celles émanant de sources privées et à celles que le Lloyd's Register possèdera par son organisation propre qui est déjà si vaste, donnent au Comité l'espoir que l'Universal Register justifiera pleinement son titre, et sera considéré comme le registre international du commerce maritime en même temps que comme un livre de statistiq

Le Comité espère que, en égard à la place dont il pouvait disposer dans l'Universal Register, il a fait connaître tous les renseignements qui pouvaient intéresser le plus ses abonnés. Sans faire la récapitulation de la liste des matières, il est peut-être bien d'attirer l'attention sur les parties du livre qui ont un caractère tout à fait spécial.

I. Liste des Navires de Guerre du Monde.—Cette liste a été faite de telle manière, qu'il est facile d'établir une comparaison de la force navale des différentes nations. Cette liste a été composée d'après des renseignements aussi précis que possible puisés à des sources authentiques, et sera trouvée, sans doute, la plus complète qui ait jamais été publiée. Relativement au bienveillant concours qui a été donné en cette circonstance d'une manière si gracieuse de différents pays, pour cette partie du livre, le Comité réitère ses meilleurs remerciements.

II. Les Tableaux de Statistique qui ont été composés pour le travail actuel ne sont pas seulement, le Comité en a l'espoir, d'une utilité réelle pour tous ceux qui ont des intérêts engagés dans le commerce maritime, mais encore, ils sont vraiment intéressants pour le public. Ils contiennent bien des informations qui n'ont pas été publiées jusqu'à ce jour, autant que le Comité a pu s'en rendre compte, et leur utilité pratique a été grandement augmentée par le système d'analyse qui a été adopté. Il est bien d'ajouter que le Comité a décidé que cette partie du travail serait développée dans les éditions futures.

Malgré qu'aucun effort n'ait été épargné pour rendre l'Universal Register aussi vrai et aussi complet que possible pour sa première publication, le Comité comprend qu'à son origine, avec une si grande quantité de renseignements, quelques rares erreurs et omissions ont pu s'y glisser ; c'est pourquoi il sera reconnaissant de tout l'appui qu'on voudra bien lui prêter pour mener l'œuvre à bonne fin, soit en lui communiquant les erreurs qu'on pourra relever, soit en lui fournissant des renseignements nouveaux.

Il reste établi que l'Universal Register demeure étranger au Lloyd's Register Book et au Yacht Register, et que ces deux registres continueront à être publiés annuellement comme par le passé.

Colonne IV.

Noms, Noms antérieurs, Matériaux de la Construction et Types du Gréement des Navires.

Colonne V.

Pavillons respectifs des Navires.

Colonne VI.

Tonnages nets. Les tonnages donnés sont les tonnages officiels calculés d'après les mesures des pays auxquels les navires appartiennent; cependant, si les navires ont été jaugés par les contrôleurs de la jauge anglaise, le tonnage enregistré est anglais.

Colonne VII.

Dimensions. Les dimensions des navires sont données en pieds anglais, et autant que possible ce sont celles des pays auxquels les navires appartiennent; cependant, si les navires ont été mesurés en Angleterre, dans ce cas, celles qui sont données sont (si la chose est possible) les mesures anglaises.

L'annotation suivante pour les creux, $\frac{18\cdot6}{25\cdot6}$, signifie que le creux jusqu'au pont principal est de 18·6 pieds et que le creux jusqu'au pont supérieur est de 25·6 pieds.

Colonne VIII.

Lieux des Constructions.

Colonne IX.

Dates des Constructions. Autant que la date de la mise à l'eau a pu être vérifiée, cette date est donnée, et l'année du lancement est considérée comme année de la construction.

L'annotation $18\frac{57}{84}$ signifie que le navire a été construit en 1857 et reconstruit en 1884; 18_{84} signifie que la date de construction est inconnue, mais que le navire a été reconstruit en 1884.

Colonne X.

Noms des Constructeurs.

Colonne XI.

Date du Doublage en Métal. Les renseignements relatifs aux doublages sont uniquement donnés d'après les rapports des Inspecteurs du Lloyds, ou d'après l'examen fait par eux de documents authentiques.

Colonne XII.

Noms des Armateurs ou des Directeurs. Pour les compagnies qui ne possedent qu'un navire et qui se nomment d'après le nom du navire, le nom du directeur est inscrit à côté de celui de la compagnie. Soit pour le "Actieselskab," etc., le nom du directeur est inscrit ainsi: "Actieselskab" (Anton Bruun), Navire "Falls of Bruar" Co. (Ld.)—(Wright & Breakenridge). Dans ces conditions, les noms des navires seront trouvés dans la "Liste des Armateurs" au-dessous des noms des directeurs.
